PRIVATE WAS GREEK GENERAL

On Trial for Desertion, American Soldier Told Remarkable Story in Justification of Conduct.

SPECIAL TO THE POST-DISPATCH.
NEW ORLEANS, July 17.—Private John C. Canary, of Third battery, United States field artillery, was tried at Jackson Barracks today for desertion. He deserted the army while at Havana, Cuba, Jan. 17, 1902, and surrendered at New Orleans, May 13.

His defense, which he is able to substantiate, was a surprise. Canary announced that he is a Greek, a graduate of the University of Athens and a general in the Cretan service. Both his father and grandfather were Greek generals.

He commanded the Cretans at Hieracha during the revolution of 1896 upon the granting of autonomy to Crete. Canary went first to South Africa and then to the United States. He enlisted in the light artillery for the purpose of gaining knowledge and practical experience.

While in Havana he received an order from the Cretan leaders to return to Crete to discuss matters affecting the independence of the island. Knowing that he could not obtain a furlough he deserted, went to Crete, took part in the discussion on March 27, 28 and 29, came back to the United States and surrendered.

The fact that he surrendered will probably be deemed a mitigating circumstance by the court-martial.

Mrs. Styne was in a pitiable condition of nervousness. Her arms were paralyzed and she was unable to open her eyes.

PARDON TO SECURE FORTUNE

One Convict Was Discharged to Collect Estate and Another Was Released to Manufacture Machines.

NEW YORK, July 17.—In order that he may return to Germany and obtain a fortune of $500,000, to which he recently fell heir, and to which his right has been fully established, Richard Bassler has been pardoned by the New Jersey Court of Pardons.

Bassler was sentenced to two years in the state prison last fall on a charge of burglary. The story of the crime, as he related it to the Court of Pardons was that, while intoxicated, he fell through a store window with no intention of stealing.

Another prisoner, sentenced for ten years in 1898, on a charge of breaking into a postoffice, was paroled in order that he might take up the manufacture of a sewing machine invented by him while behind the bars.

A company with an authorized capitalization of $1,000,000, has been chartered to manufacture the machine. The prisoner-owner is said to have received $200,000 cash and a block of stock in the new company.

National Asphalt Reorganization.
NEW YORK, July 17.—Announcement is made that the reorganization plan of the National Asphalt Co., prepared by the protective committee, has been signed by members of both committees, and that the details will be made public on Friday or Saturday of this week.

The total capitalization of the new company estimates the reorganization plan will be $21,000,000, consisting of $17,000,000 in common stock and $4,000,000 in preferred.

ARMY AND NAVY GAME OF WAR

Ports Will Try to Defend Harbor of New York.

SHIP WILL MAKE ATTACK

REALISTIC MIMIC BATTLE TO BE FOUGHT IN AUGUST.

Battleships, Torpedo Boats, Wireless Telegraph and All Up-to-Date Devices for Naval Warfare to Be Used—Part Played by Searchlights.

Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, July 16.—Next month the war department and the navy department will demonstrate to their satisfaction, if not to the satisfaction of the people of New York, whether the forts on Long Island Sound and the artillery there are of sufficient strength to resist an invading fleet.

Following the leadership of England, France, Germany and Japan it is intended to hold the greatest series of naval and military maneuvers this country has ever seen in time of peace. The idea is this:
The navy department will endeavor to win its biggest ships by the first line of eastern defenses of New York, that is to say, through Long Island Sound, the arms with its artillery and infantry branches, supported by the militia, will try to see to it that the navy is repulsed and does not get in a position where, if the ships were of a hostile fleet, New York could be shelled.

Of course, it will be a sham battle. There will be no projectiles fired from the forts at the greatest ships of the navy, and the navy will not use the terrible 16-inch guns nor start the sputter rapid-fire batteries. There will be plenty of gunpowder burned, plenty of smoke and all the other work of things, but the real test will come with the decision of experts who will be stationed on ships and on shore to decide whether, at certain times, an attacking ship could withstand the fire from the forts, providing it were real, or whether the forts would have a chance from the making the ships would give them.

How the Shells
Tell Who Won.

Every person who has seen a sham battle has asked "How do you know which ship won?"

The process is rather complicated, but the naval experts say and the military experts agree that they can very accurately determine what the conditions would have been had the attack been for blood instead of for practice.

In the first place the field of maneuvers will be clearly marked. In the first line to be played next month the field will extend from New Bedford on the north to New York City on the south. There will be a certain limit fixed, beyond which the ships cannot go. The navy will have the advantage in each of the three or four times it will be the duty of these under fire to decide whether or not the fort will win.

For instance, if a ship should get by the outside forts and come to Fort Schuyler and Blooming there will be marked there a certain zone within which the line of effective fire from the fort. If a ship get past that zone and in on the fort without having a searchlight thrown on her or a gun fired from the fort and proceed to fire a gun, or two or three or four times, the ship will have taken the fort.

But if before the ship reaches this zone she is held up by a searchlight and the fort fire is such that the ship will be considered to have lost and army to have won.
If a number of ships come in the same apply, but when the action is over, the guns all fired and the strategy all demonstrated there will be a meeting of the experts and they will decide what the outcome of the attack or the success of the repulsive has been.

General Naval Maneuvers.

Before the attack on the forts is made it is the intention of the secretary of the navy to have some general naval maneuvers. These will probably consist of the first three weeks of August.
The North Atlantic Squadron, which will be assembled, will be divided into two parts. One will be told off to represent an enemy's fleet and the other to represent the defending squadron will be to send out scouts, locate the attacking squadron, inform the battleship which are held in reserve, so that a naval engagement may be precipitated off the coast. The country saved from a ravaging attack by the enemy.

The ships taking part in these maneuvers will include the battleships Kearsarge, Alabama and Massachusetts, the cruiser Olympia, the Montgomery, Scorpion, Marblehead and probably a half dozen more of the crack ships of the navy.

If it so happens that the defending fleet discovers the attacking fleet and battle is joined there will be no set rules for the conditions under which ships will be decided out of action, each case will be decided by the umpire on its merits.
When the ships approach within the firing distance the beginning of the action will be marked by the firing of the great guns and as the distance lessens by the use of the rapid-fire batteries. There will not be much gun-firing, but the principle test will be the maneuvering for place from which shots that would probably be hits could be fired. There will be umpires on every ship.

Wireless Telegraph
Will Be Used.

It is possible that two battleships or a battleship and a cruiser will make a demonstration against Fort Adams, which is the northernmost fort in the district, while the real force might go against Fort Sumner or Fort Terry. The army will be totally uninformed as to the point of attack.
Wireless telegraph will be used on ships so that the delay consequent on dispatch boats will be avoided and the situation of the army on shore be made so much more difficult.

The forces at the forts will be at their fullest strength. Within a few days Gen. Brooke will issue secret orders distributing all the troops in this vicinity at the various forts. Gen. Brooke will be in command of the army, for he retires during the month, but Gen. MacArthur, who will succeed him, will direct the operations.

Harmless mine will be placed in all the waters, and undoubtedly torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers will be utilized to send in to remove the mines. The searchlights of the forts do not get the torpedo boats before they reach the mines it will be considered that the mine has been removed and made useless, and the fort will lose that much.

The army must find out what is going on in the navy, and this extent the army has the more difficult part of the game, because they must remain at fixed places with their big guns, while the ships of the navy can move about at will in the restricted territory.

The strength of the army will be in the location of signal parties all along the coast and the constant utilization of telephone and telegraph facilities between the forts on the shore.

POLICE LEAGUED WITH CRIMINALS

Astounding Corruption Discovered in Minneapolis.

THE MAYOR IS INDICTED VILE PRACTICES PROTECTED AND BLACKMAIL LEVIED.

Several Convictions Obtained and Detectives Turn State's Evidence—Mayor Accused of Offering Bribes to Secure Appointment to Office for a Henchman.

Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch.
MINNEAPOLIS, July 16.—Recent investigations by the St. Paul Dispatch have developed a scandal involving a score or more members of the Minneapolis police department. The grand jury has found the present police administration to be corrupt in every branch, and the disclosures have stirred public sentiment to such a heat that Mayor Ames and most of the favored members of the administration are threatened not only with political oblation, but with imprisonment for alleged felonies.

The grand jury of the spring term of court returned indictments charging James C. Howard and John C. Morrissey, two members of the plain-clothes branch of the police department, with accepting bribes from a local aviator.

A few days later another batch of indictments were returned charging Edwin A. Gardner, a medical student in Mayor Ames' office, clothed with authority of a special police officer, with accepting bribes from a local aviator, and Frederick W. Ames, chief of police, with being in league with and accepting bribes from a gang of crooks known as "big mitt" men.

It was popularly supposed at this time that this was the end of the investigation. When, however, the foreman of the grand jury reported to Judge Simpson that the investigation had just begun, it became the general impression that corruption had been found in high places.

Mayor Ames Indicted.
Following this report came the startling announcement of an indictment for Mayor Ames himself and Detective Malone and Brackett, Capt. "Coffee John" Fichette, one of the pillars of the Ames administration, and Capt. "Nipper" W. King, at one time chief of detectives.

Early last spring two confidence men, "Billy" Edwards and "Cheerful Charlie" Howard were caught in the act of swindling a man out of $200. They were arrested, lodged in jail, and after some peculiar maneuvering by the police were finally brought to trial and within two hours convicted of grand larceny in the first degree.

When Edwards was taken to the county jail he was very angry. He declared he had been "thrown down" by the police and deserted by his attorney. A few days later he became confidential with Capt. Alexander, the superintendent of the jail, and told him a story which both surprised and startled the jailer.

Alexander consulted court officials and finally called in Hovey C. Clark, foreman of the grand jury, to whom Edwards repeated his tale. Edwards and Howard were voluntarily before the grand jury and testified as to their dealings with the police department. Later Edwards appeared as a witness against Gardner.

Norbeck then made a full and free confession. He corroborated in every detail the story told by Edwards. He went farther and said that a large number of absolute women were regularly paying money, which went to the hands of the police department. He said that this money was deposited in envelopes with a pawnbroker doing business on Washington avenue. The money was collected was turned over by this man to the police department.

Fully $30,000 a Year Obtained.
According to Norbeck's theory, the money collected from this source would aggregate fully $30,000 a year. Norbeck also said that for the past year and a half 10 places on Washington avenue in the heart of the business district had been occupied by swindlers who paid money for police protection.

About this time the grand jury learned that a number of police officers had paid money to secure their appointments. In this connection an indictment was returned for "Coffee John" Fichette, charging him with accepting $500 from John Long, a police patrolman. He was convicted by a jury yesterday.

Indictments were also returned for Detectives Fred Malone and Charles Brackett, charging them with being accessories to a felony. Some months ago a safe at the Pabst Brewing Co.'s office in this city was robbed of $100. The Pabst people learned that two of their employees were connected with the robbery. They were confronted with evidence and confessed. The local police officers. An agreement was effected whereby the matter was to be settled without criminal prosecution. It was charged that in this connection Malone and Brackett paid the Pabst people $500. Detective Brackett disappeared and has been declared a fugitive from justice.

Mayor Accused of Bribery.
Mayor Ames is charged in the indictment with offering a bribe to two members of the Board of County Commissioners as a consideration for their votes. Some time ago Sheriff Meade was dismissed from office by Gov. Van Sant. To fill this vacancy his successor was to be elected by the Board of County Commissioners. Mayor Ames is alleged to have called two members of the board to his office and to have offered them a certain percentage of the emoluments of the sheriffalty if they would elect to the office Thomas R. Brown, the mayor's private secretary.

The grand jury is still in session. Its members declare that they propose to root out corruption of all kinds. They have before them a great mass of evidence and have heard disclosures involving not only the mayor and chief of police, but also civilians connected with the administration and almost every member of the detective force. Numerous additional indictments are expected.

As yet Mayor Ames has dismissed only two members of the police force. He is connected with the present bribery scandal. They are charged with having taken the money from the grand jury and having testified before the grand jury against Capt. "Coffee John" Fichette, and Detective Charles Brackett, a fugitive from justice.

WITH IMPOSING CEREMONY.

CHICAGO, July 17.—With much pomp and imposing ceremony, and in the presence of the cardinal of the church and a great gathering of ecclesiastical dignitaries, the last rites of the Roman Catholic religion were performed for Archbishop Feehan today at the cathedral of the Holy Name. Early in the day a series of masses was begun by the numerous visiting prelates, and a great pontifical requiem mass.

AFTER CITIZENSHIP FRAUDS.

President Confers With New Indian Judges About Eliminating It.

OVERSEA, N. Y., July 17.—Former Representative Walter L. Weaver of Springfield, O., arrived here today and had a conference with the President. He recently was appointed one of the justices of the Choctaw and Chickasaw citizenship courts of Indian Territory, together with Judge Spencer H. Adams of Greensboro, N. C., and Judge F. C. of California. Judge Weaver came by invitation to discuss with the President the proposed work of the courts.

Mr. Roosevelt is deeply interested in the effort to eliminate citizenship frauds in the Indian Territory. It is expected that the members of the court will meet this week in Washington to make out their work and to decide when and where their sittings shall begin.

Casper Whitney, editor of Outing, R. H. Hawley, Republican national committee man from Texas, and Regis H. Post of Hayport, Pa., were guests of the President today at luncheon.

Secretary of the Navy Moody, who was expected at Sagamore Hill today or tomorrow, will not be able on account of official duties demanding his attention in Washington to come to Oyster Bay for perhaps ten days. It is announced that

DEATH ENDED CAREER OF LUCK

Acrobat Thomas Died From Broken Back.

VITALITY WAS REMARKABLE

HIS INJURY AT FIRST WAS NOT CONSIDERED SERIOUS.

Man Hurt at Delmar Had Figured in Many Mishaps and Was Confident He Would Recover.

David Thomas, the young acrobat who fell 35 feet from a swinging bar at Delmar Garden, died at the City Hospital at 10:20 o'clock Wednesday night, just 24 hours after the accident happened.

When Thomas arrived at the hospital it was not believed that he had been seriously injured.

The hospital records simply showed that he had received contusions on the back and head.

This diagnosis was made hurriedly at the City Dispensary.

Afterwards Dr. Nield made a thorough examination and found that Thomas was fatally hurt and could not recover.

The fact that he lived so long with a broken back is in itself considered remarkable.

Thomas was 20 years old, and had been an acrobat about four years. He was also a skilled acrobat and tight-rope walker.

In an interview with the Post-Dispatch he said that he never performed over a net and it was evident as he spoke that he did not realize the serious nature of his injuries.

He felt certain that he would recover.

Thomas figured in several accidents, but escaped luckily.

He was a familiar figure at the Delmar Garden, having performed there from the commencement of the present season.

About six months ago he was married to Miss Taylor of El Paso, Tex.

He eloped with the young woman, and they were married without the presence of his parents. Mrs. Thomas is prostrated.

SPAIN'S AWAKENING COMING

Her New Minister Tells of the Recent Efforts of Her People to Restore Commerce.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Emilio de Ojeda, the new Spanish minister to this country, is in the city, and will remain here for a short time before going to Newport for the remainder of the summer. Discussing the conditions of trade in Spain and the proposed reciprocity treaty with the United States, the minister said:

"Spain, having lost her colonies, fully realizes the importance of increasing her commercial relations in order to adjust her affairs to the new conditions. But what is needed as a preparation for increased commercial intercourse is a better understanding and more general intercourse between the two peoples."

"I find there is almost total ignorance, in a popular sense, in the United States as to what Spain is, and there is even greater ignorance, if possible, in Spain in regard to the United States."

"As a beginning, therefore, I favor increased intercourse between the two nations. When the people of Spain and the United States get to understand each other better the commercial opportunities will follow."

"And I think that a happy and practical way of creating this better understanding has been hit upon. The idea is to establish a kind of syndicate to comprise the rich bankers in Spain, the railroad companies, the hotels, etc., for the purpose of convincing American tourists to visit our country. The plan is to make the trip as cheap and in every way as pleasant as possible, and have all conveniences."

"And in this connection I may say that the spirit of consolidation of interest is already developing in Spain on very broad lines. There has been wonderful progress in the Spanish shipyards, in sugar growing and planting. The foreign office has opened a sample office for the purpose of giving our people an idea of foreign requirements. Samples of all articles that Spain can produce and have a foreign market are on exhibition with their ruling prices attached, and the new department is one that will undoubtedly prove of great value."

A MAN CAN'T swim in shackles. It isn't a question of his winning a race, but a question of being able only to keep afloat. The man who is suffering from malnutrition is like the fettered swimmer. His stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition are diseased. It is not a question of his winning in the race for business but of simply keeping up under any circumstances.

Whenever disease affects the stomach, it is affecting also the blood and the health of every organ of the body. For blood is only food converted into nutrition and nutrition is the life of the body and every organ of it.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It purifies the blood and enables the perfect nutrition of the body which means perfect health.

"For six long years I suffered with indigestion and my liver and stomach were in the best of health in my country," writes E. L. Russell, Esq., of Princeton, N. J., "and after taking a 'cart-load' of medicine from three doctors I grew so weak I could hardly do a day's work. Would have been dead but for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

"Pleasant Pills." Before I had taken half of the second bottle I began to feel relieved, six more bottles and used them, and am happy to say I owe my life to Dr. Pierce's."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just good" for diseases of the stomach, liver and lungs.

MACON, Mo., July 17.—The local tramp problem has been solved after the authorities had turned it down as one of the evils that must be abolished.

The honor goes to a tall, dark-eyed young woman of 20 years, Miss Cora Palfrey, youngest daughter of F. Palfrey, proprietor of the Palfrey Foundry and Machine Works.

Mrs. Palfrey and another daughter went downtown this morning, leaving Miss Cora in the large house alone.

The weary Willie who figures in this story had seen them leave the house and he immediately entered the yard from the rear and snatched up to the kitchen door as if the world and the fulness thereof were his by warranty deed.

He was young and strong looking, with sunburned visage and hands. He knocked at the door in a lordly manner. Miss Cora promptly responded.

"All right, what you, miss?" he remarked, with a grin.

Miss Cora has ridden Western ponies and has traveled in the cab of a lightning express engine. She has killed mice and snakes and isn't afraid of a mere man. She said she was not quite alone, she had a friend in the drawing room.

"What are you, miss?" asked the tramp. "I'll be there in a minute, I'll bring my friend out and introduce him to you," said the young woman, and she waited into the front room, picked a double-action revolver out of a drawer and returned to the door.

"Here's my friend," she said. "Now you see."

The barrel was leveled at the shifty eyes. The fellow hesitated a second or two. Something whistled by his head and knocked his hat off.

He didn't hunt the gate, but jumped the fence like Tom Sawyer used to do when Aunt Polly pressed him too close.

The pistol spoke again, and the ball struck the boards a few inches below a dissonant clatter.

The next freight train that rolled through town added a box-car patron. Mayor John Davis congratulated the young woman and offered her a position on the police force.

Prominent Liquor Man Thwarts Plans for Meeting of Bratton, Orthwein and Lucas.

Kinloch Park will open its gates to the public Aug. 15, in accordance with the schedule of dates allotted.

At a meeting of racing enthusiasts, among whom were John S. Bratton, Joseph D. Lucas and Ralph Orthwein, held yesterday afternoon at Delmar Jockey Club, the gentlemen concerned reached an agreement to make arrangements for taking charge of Kinloch Park and conducting the two weeks' meeting scheduled to be held there.

Unfortunately for the plans of these parties, Capt. P. J. Carmody announced that he has secured lease of the track and intends to conduct the meeting there himself.

The lease was secured this morning from Phil Chew, who, with Mr. Lucas, has been identified with Kinloch Park since the organization of the Kinloch Jockey Club. Mr. Lucas was interested in the plans of Bratton, Orthwein and Lucas.

Bratton and his associates had planned to make the coming meeting more of a social affair than the recent meetings of the Fair Grounds and Delmar Club have been. Steeplechasing and gentleman rider races were to have been given prominent places on the daily cards.

No announcement has been made by Messrs. Bratton, Orthwein and Lucas as to what alteration in their plans will be made to meet the move of Capt. Carmody.

BASEBALL PARAGRAPHS.

The Browns game today will probably be called off, owing to the want of a Baltimore team. President Johnson can hardly get together a team in a day, though not all of the Baltimore players will disperse as a result of the deal disposing of the team to New York. Johnson says he can have a team in the field Friday.

It is sincerely hoped Murphy will round to form today and that the Cardinals will be able to get together a team in a day, though not all of the Baltimore players will disperse as a result of the deal disposing of the team to New York. Johnson says he can have a team in the field Friday.

Chicago is after the sculls of local oarsmen.

Frank J. Snite, member of the Chicago Yacht Club, is eager to meet the winner of the single scull event to be rowed at Creve Coeur Lake next Saturday.

Snite endeavored to enter the Creve Coeur Lake race, but his communications to the Southwestern Rowing Association by mail and telegraph both were not replied to.

The regatta, however, is open only to members of clubs belonging to the Southwestern Rowing Association, with which the Chicago Yacht Club has no connection.

Snite's entry was, therefore, refused.

In a letter to John J. Schaap, Snite says he would like to meet the winner of the event, but his entry has not been accepted and issues a challenge for a race to be rowed July 26 at Chicago.

The Chicago Yacht Club will hang up a handsome prize for the event, and will guarantee the expenses of the St. Louis contestant, whoever he may prove to be.

PRIZEFIGHTER FELLED HORSE WITH ONE BLOW AND SAVED YOUNG GIRL
KNOCKOUT BLOWA VERTED RUNAWAY TRAGEDY

"RUBE" FERNS, WHO RESCUED YOUNG GIRL IN RUNAWAY AT EUREKA SPRINGS WEDNESDAY.

"Rube" Ferns Adopted Novel but Effective Way of Stopping Runaway at Eureka Springs.

"Rube" (James) Ferns may have been deposed from the championship of the welterweights of the country when he met Joe Walcott at Port Erie, but it certainly was not for the want of a punch.

Yesterday at Eureka Springs Ferns knocked out a horse with one blow and saved the life of a young girl who was being whirled through the streets of the Springs village in a wagon drawn by the runaway animal.

Ferns is training at Eureka Springs for a fight with Billy Emerson, which is to take place at that city Friday night. Yesterday, while standing with a group of friends at the main spring, he came attached to a wagon in which was seated a young girl dashed up Spring street.

Ferns sprang over the coping to the street below and seized the nearest horse by the bridle at that city Friday night. Yesterday, while standing with a group of friends at the main spring, he came attached to a wagon in which was seated a young girl dashed up Spring street.

BIG FIELDS, BIG GOOD
CLASS AT DELMAR TODAY

Races Average Ten Horses Each, But the Third, Fourth and Fifth Events Should Prove Close Contests.

By R. D. WALSH.

The fields will be large today at Delmar, averaging ten to each race. As a consequence they will be hard to pick. There is, however, considerable class to some of them, especially the third, fourth and fifth, and the purse race especially, in which Miss Goughly and Wax Taper are entered.

Should bring about a spirited and close contest.

The dozen that will contest in the opening event at six and one-half furlongs I have no record of the work of Red Vapor and Mento. Dominate has not run here either, but he performed once at Memphis last spring, and his attempt at victory was not promising.

Fred Hessig ran at this distance last Monday, and was beaten so badly that I cannot give him a chance to be in the money today. Hazel H. Saxton and Proves do not figure to win, according to the "dope." Brigid Queen and Squeaky finished third and eleventh in a seven-furlong race Saturday last, and neither of them should be expected to do better.

I think the race lies between Miss Guido and Blue Blaze. Miss Guido ran an excellent fourth Saturday in a seven-furlong race, being one length in front of the field. Blue Blaze, who was beaten by her, was a head behind her in the same race.

Again, July 9, she ran third to Ransom and Weldon, being only beaten a neck and a head. This was a credible performance.

Blue Blaze has been threatening to win for a long time, but he has not succeeded in doing so since the season opened. He is considered a speedy animal for about six furlongs, but I think he will show the same speed in the last sixteenth.

Thrive is a relic of better days, but at what he may manage to run third.

KUBELIK ENTERED.

Kubelik in the second. Who is he? A great audience of a racehorse? If the latter he should do something on his great name, but as I have no record of any racing effort of his, I must only suppose that he is a maiden and treat him accordingly. He cannot be selected to win in his first out.

He might be inclined to go to Maverick in the second race, but his last attempt, July 10, forbids me. On that occasion in a field of eight he finished last and got so far behind that he was not even in the money. I know that he can do better than that, but must go according to the record and subordinate personal opinion and feeling for cold facts.

Model March beat Sailor's Dream July 12, and Pickles beat Model March July 13. Pickles should be the favorite in the second race. This is the logic of it, and if the race is truly run, Pickles should head the field.

The company the Humboldt and lend kindly assistance in entertaining the little ones. The children of the playground at Eighth and Rutgers streets, headed over by Miss Pavey, arrived early on the grounds. Miss Thomas, Miss Marshall and Miss Priest are assisting in the outing.

Free Ride on Scenic Railway.

In the afternoon the children were given a free ride on the scenic railway and taken to witness the show in the pavilion. Each one of the 2000 children received a ticket, presenting the compliments of the Highlands and inviting a bearer to the scenic railway ride and the performance. Lockhart's trained elephants were the special card of attraction for the juvenile visitors.

A football and baseball game was played by the boys in the park, under the guidance of Dr. Skinner. The ladies of the executive board and the teachers and doctors were the guests of Messrs. Stuever and Hopkins at a repast served by Mr. Fischer, the Forest Park Highlands caterer. The scenic railway company transported the children to and from the Highlands free.

WATER RUINS THE CROPS.

Heavy Loss by Rise of the Mississippi
Near Hannibal.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
HANNIBAL, Mo., July 17.—The stage of water at noon today was 14 feet 3 inches, but the water is expected to be stationary by evening, as it is rising very slowly and reports from above show a fall at all points that will effect the gauge here for several days.

The damage to growing crops grows as reports come in. All the lowlands above this city extending for a distance of 20 miles are under water, some places to the depth of several feet. Cornfields can be seen with only one or two stalks sticking out. This land is farmed largely by tenants, who staked all on this year's crop, as last season's was almost a failure. The prospect was unusually promising, but these people have not only lost their crops but nearly all of them have been compelled to move to the main land. A number who had knolls built about their houses and barns remained until today, but the island is now practically depopulated, and a few men are still trying to save some of the wheat. The loss has evidently been very heavy on either side of the river for a distance of five miles above the city, but the damage is heavier on the Missouri side, on account of the practical absence of levees.

It is difficult to give an estimate of the loss in this county alone, but it will be many thousands of dollars. The water has receded from the Burlington tracks at Alexandria.

Anxious to Learn.

From the Chicago Record-Herald.
"And so you have to speak words in your language, Mr. Omokura."
"No, no," the Japanese traveler replied. "But, of course, you can think such thoughts, I suppose, can't you?"

ST. LOUIS BOY FEATHER THAN STARVE JOINED BRITISH

William Kelley Victim of Outrage in South Africa.

WAS SCARELY ABLE TO SEE

YOUTHS WERE FOOLED BY RUSE AND LEFT IN DURBAN.

With Others Young Kelley, Who Reached Home Today, Was Compelled to Enlist After He Had Shipped as a Muleteer.

After an absence of a year, during which he suffered many hardships as the result of being forced to join the English army in South Africa, William Kelley, 18 years old, of 1213 North Third street, has returned to St. Louis.

His vision of joyful adventures was brief. Young Kelley left St. Louis July 3, 1901, having been assured, he says, by a St. Louis employment agency, that he could ship to South Africa as a muleteer, for which service, he says, he was promised $45 a month.

He arrived in New Orleans July 4, and three days later in company with 28 other Americans, set sail for South Africa.

A young man was in charge of the vessel when Kelley took to be a lieutenant in the service of the British army.

It took just 37 days to make the voyage. Arriving at Cape Town the muleteers received permission to leave the ship for a few hours.

Upon their return they were informed that the boiler of the vessel had become impaired and they would have to stay over 12 days.

This was not cheering news. During their stay the young Americans had seen and learned all they wanted of South Africa.

SHIP HAD GONE.

When the trouble on the ship was announced the English army officer ordered that the muleteers report daily for duty. On the tenth day the men came to report as usual, but to their dismay found that the ship had gone.

They could either starve or enter the British ranks. Self-preservation prompted them to become English soldiers.

Kelley was among the number that donned the British uniform. Before he went away Kelley had his sight examined, having suffered with an optical affliction for some time. The doctor told him that if he was careful he would go stone blind.

The recruiting officer, however, failed to detect anything wrong with Kelley, and although the latter says he could not see half a dozen feet ahead of him, he was duly enrolled as a subject of Gen. Kitchen.

Kelley was assigned to a troop which was sent to Durban. On the second day out he was sent 200 miles on horseback to deliver a message to an English officer.

Kelley explained that his sight was affected, and he was afraid to journey so far alone, but to no purpose.

You have got to do it or be court-martialed," the officer said. And the young man obeyed.

Kelley got sick and for a week his life was despaired of. He remained with the army five weeks when, being placed on leave every day, he saw an opportunity to escape.

He went to the port at East London and sailed for Australia on a German trading ship.

MADE HIS ESCAPE.

A few weeks later found him at Melbourne, Australia, without clothes or money and unable to get anything to do. He managed to beg a pair of overalls and then he discarded his army uniform.

From Australia he set sail for England, but the ship was partially wrecked off the Australian coast and he was brought back to land.

Some time afterward he took passage on a German steamer going to South Africa. He landed at Durban and from there went on another vessel to New Orleans as a stowaway.

In company with the others Kelley says he made every effort to get the 45 wages which had been guaranteed him, but without success.

Dr. J. H. Moore of 206 Odd Fellows' building, who is now treating the young man, declares he has an outrage on the part of the English to enlist him.

"A glance at the boy," said the doctor, "would have convinced any recruiting officer that his eyes were severely affected."

FEARED LYNCHERS' REVENGE.

Showman Killed Son, but Failed on Himself.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
KANSAAS CITY, Mo., July 17.—J. M. Speyer of New Orleans, who is appearing at a street fair in this city, killed his 5-year-old son by cutting his throat last night, and then attempted to end his own life in the same way.

Speyer was accused of attacking a 9-year-old girl today, and asserts that he decided to kill his son and himself because he feared the lynchings of his wife and daughter in New Orleans.
